Mr. Jonathan Kozol
1 Main Street
Byfield, MA 01922-1216

Dear Mr. Kozol:

Re: Inner-City Holocaust and America's Apartheid "Justice" System
In Honor of Jonathan Kozol and In Memory of John Howard Griffin
The Last Chapter

You have every right to be surprised by the referenced topic!!! Especially because it seems to describe a book (which is true) which has been written in honor of you (which is also true)!!!

You are undoubtedly aware of the "I Have A Dream"® Program which was patterned after Gene Lang's 1981 spontaneous promise of college tuition to the graduating sixth graders of Harlem P.S. 121 for whom he then arranged tutoring and mentoring through high school graduation.

- I was one of 178 sponsors who immediately stepped forward to replicate what Gene had done in 51 American cities (my project served 200 children in public housing projects), and
- I served as Gene's volunteer treasurer of IHAD-National during the 1990's.

The referenced book chronicles the judicial improprieties perpetrated to protect Barclays Capital Ltd. (a U.K. subsidiary of Barclays Bank PLC) from the consequences of its admitted theft of a trade secret invented by me and whose value had been pledged in legally-binding fashion to fund $84 billion of IHAD programs for 10 million inner-city children.

The final appeal is to the U.S. Supreme Court. Enclosed is a Petition for Certiorari (request to accept an appeal) for which the "Question Presented For Review" was:

"Can state court judges order their decisions which they know are diametrically-opposed to well-settled law, not to be published or cited (a strategy labeled 'the segregated toilet' in correspondence with 51 inner-city clergy who represent the 10 million inner-city children who have been disclosed from the outset as the 'real parties at interest' in this law suit) in order to flush away the rights of the 10 million inner-city children without disturbing the rights of first-class American citizens – without violating the 'Equal Protection of the Law' requirement of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution?"

You might be interested to know that the Petition to the U.S. Supreme Court ends on p. 41 with a listing of your books because the Defendants had had the gall to argue, in opposing an appeal to the California Supreme Court, that inner-city children are not entitled to the same right to common-law conversion (the civil tort corresponding to theft and most readily recognized as the basis for recovery by heirs of Holocaust victims whose fine art was stolen by the Nazis, of that fine art from the current "owners" as they become known even though the "owners" were unaware of the theft) -- as is enjoyed by first-class American citizens because inner-city children are allegedly not facing a Holocaust!!!

The last chapter of the book is currently being written by the 21 National and California governmental officials (starting with President Obama, Governor Brown and the California Congressional Delegation) that refused to file Amicus Curiae ("friend of the court") briefs in a virtually-identical Petition for Certiorari 12 months ago involving Goldman Sachs, et al., and by 43 news-media superstars who refused to provide "equal protection of the media" by shining the same spotlight on the Goldman Sachs Petition that they routinely shine on David Boies and his lawsuits, such as his Proposition 8 litigation.

Further details are available in the third section of www.ReadingLiberally-SaltLake.org entitled "Possible Topic for Fall 2011" -- enclosed are copies of the items posted there that have received the greatest number of "views." The first two items (the May 18 letters to David Axelrod and U.S. Senator Chris Coons) provide the best overview.

There is really nothing for you to do. Now that there is a small lull in the storm, it occurred that as a matter of courtesy, an attempt should be made to track you down and provide a "heads up" on what is "going down."

Sincerely yours,

John S. Karls
